 with your studies &
 boys. You are a pretty smart
 girl!!

Dear Susan,
 I'm so happy to be your friend. You just can't imagine. I'm looking forward to the day I can write you. Love
 Susan

Susan,
 I'm really glad to hear you're in

To Susan's fellow
 students all the time
 we enjoyed all the fun
 incidents & the
 decorations
 hoping to see you next year. Love
 Susan

Susan,
 I'm so glad you're a great member - I love you!
 I hope we grow closer together
 and become friends!

Dear Susie,
I'm really having
fun knowing
this past summer
and especially Pages. You're a wonderful, sweet
girl, and I'm sure
will go very far in life. May God bless you in your future years to come. Have a fun summer. Hope
see you soon.
Love ya!

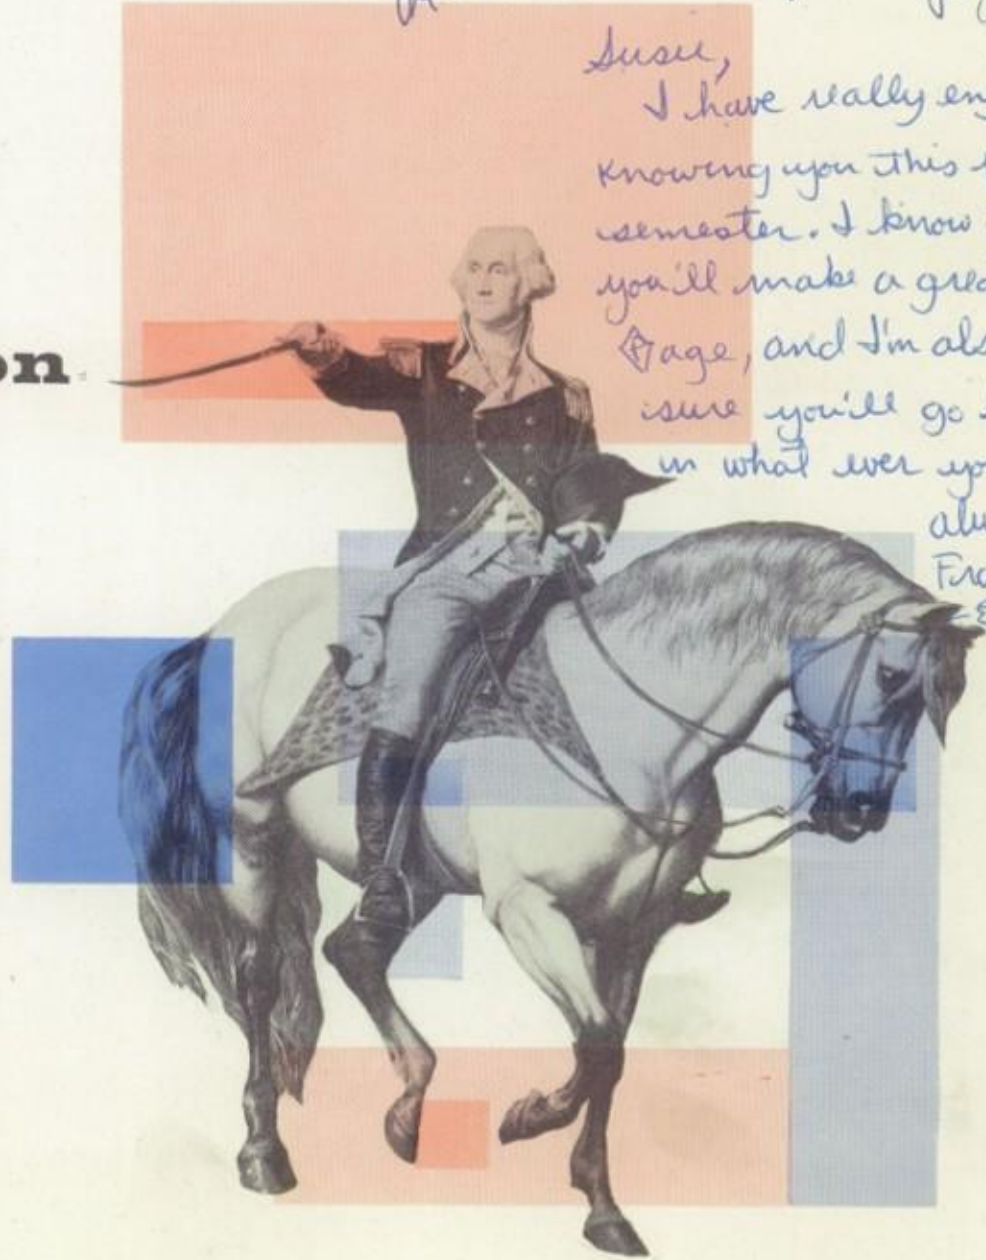

Dear Susie,
 Golly I'm so glad that you're a Page!
 Even before you got in I always noticed you and hoped that you'd turn out to be a great member! Best of luck to you always, Love

. . . Now the names are endless. Washington High may claim at least one.
 Colonel John Savage, who fought his battles not with a gun but through scientific knowledge. A military inventor, involved in such projects as the satellite program and ATAC, he helped not only his nation but the world.
 To Colonel Savage and that very first hero we dedicate this book . . .

CHEERLEADERS

Johnson & Dave Oliviadoti

Carol Suffron & Philip Arjonilla

Patsy Potter & Bill Vandewetering

Cheryl Howard & Gregory Byrd

Judy Quentmeyer & Don Eisenberg

Washington song and cheerleaders are indeed a rare breed. Even in the face of defeat with the enemy pressing forth, they are always in there for the last hurrah. If General Washington and his Continental Army had had them at Valley Forge that winter might not have been so bleak. They did save us from those bleak moments of play by sending up a cheer for the team whether it was winning or not. When it comes to spirit they're the school's best known Patrick Henrys.

On The Campus

Leisure...lines.....

Away from the classroom Washington students participate in a full campus life. Aside from the traditional battles with lockers, Washingtonians ate, walked, talked, listened, joked, laughed, and even occasionally studied as they spread themselves out across the school grounds waiting for that old indomitable bell to ring and the next class to begin.

.lawns.

...and loads of lockers

In The Classroom

Classes at Washington are far from limited to the Three R's of yesteryear and do not always concern themselves with the associated textbook atmosphere. They cover a variety of subjects ranging from floriculture to physics, and allow each student to participate in the vast world of knowledge.

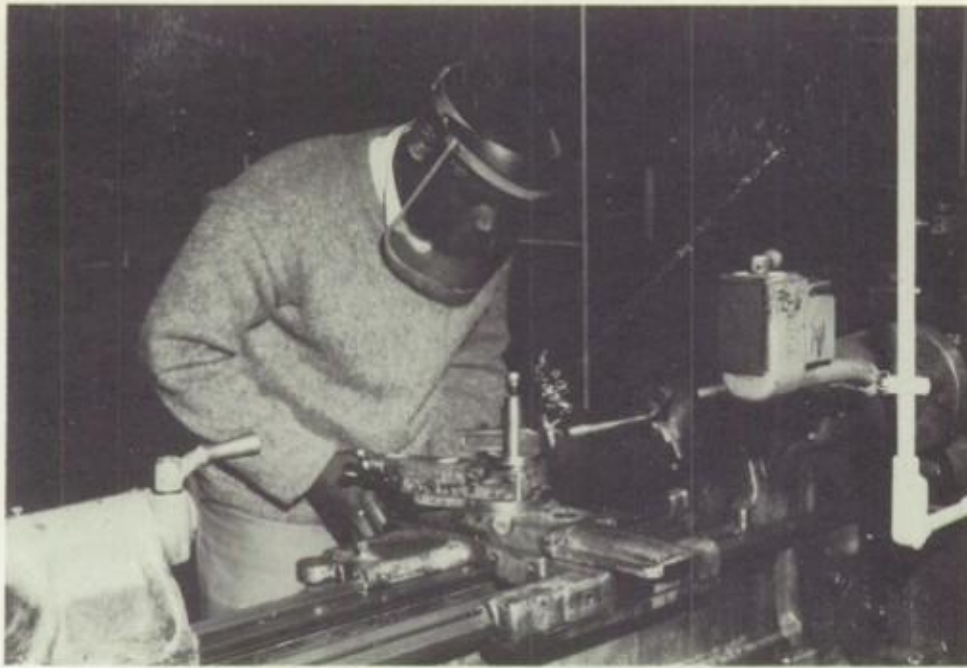

Pens. . . pencils. . . slide rules. . . blackboards. . .

.desks. . .machines. . .and skeletons?

ACTIVITIES

After Hours

Princesses and escorts (from left to right): Terry Young, Charlene Mora, Ernie Mitchell, Patricia Porter, John Lille-Maehlum, Lupita Tello.

Queen Paula adds royal touch to

homecoming

America's War for Independence began with defeat at Lexington. Following in this tradition the Generals were routed in an 18-0 loss to Narbonne. The pre-season opener did have its moments, though. Those moments at halftime. In a majestic ceremony Paula Hartsfield, escorted by Dock Ellis was crowned Homecoming Queen '64.

Susie,
 It has really been
 a ball having you in class. It's not very often that you find someone
 as sweet and intelligent as you are. I hope that in the coming years
 you receive the best of
 cause you deserve it.
 Always,
 Jacquie
